CASE NO. C18-0513RSL

v.

ORDER

10 SECURITY PROPERTIES
11 RESIDENTIAL, LLC, et al.,
12
13 Defendants.

14 This matter comes before the Court on plaintiff's "Unopposed Motion
15 Requesting Deadline Relief." Dkt. # 99. The motion is GRANTED. The parties shall, on 16 or before August 22, 2019, submit a joint status report answering the questions set forth
17 in Dkt. # 90 in correspondingly numbered paragraphs. If the parties are unable to agree
18 on any part of the report, they may answer the question(s) in separate paragraphs under 19 the same paragraph number. No separate reports are to be filed. In order to keep this 20 case moving forward, no further extensions of this filing deadline will be granted.

21 In paragraph number 5 of the joint status report, the parties shall affirm that they 22 have disclosed (a) the name and contact information of individuals they may use to
23 support a claim or defense, (b) copies of all documents they may use to support a claim
24 or defense, (c) a computation of damages claimed, and (d) any insurance policies that 25

1 may be implicated by this lawsuit. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1).

2 If plaintiff intends to amend her complaint, she must file a motion for leave to 3 amend and attach a copy of the proposed pleading pursuant to the procedure set forth in 4 LCR 15.

6 Dated this 31st day of July, 2019.
